

If television signals are broadcast, high definition or not, the public has the right to record it for personal use. Do not restrict this access, please.